

UK Health Data Research Alliance – Using Linked Data for Research: Challenges and Opportunities within the UK Health Ecosystem

Chair: Meredith Leston (Nuffield Department of Primary Care Health Sciences, University of Oxford)

Date: 13th June 2022 13:00 – 14:30

Zoom link: <https://zoom.us/j/92750371341?pwd=VUNtYi9FRk9FL2NZRG92MDRwbXFyQT09>

Time	Item	Lead
13:00 (5 min)	Welcome and introductions Overview of session – why we are here	Meredith Leston & Paola Quattroni
13.05 (5min)	Definitions / Background Context on the issues surrounding the linkage of consented and routinely collected health data	Meredith Leston
13:10 (15 min)	Clinician Perspective (Windrush Medical Practice & Royal College of General Practitioners)  'Sharing and Linking Health Data from the Clinician's Perspective: Pitfalls and Myth-busting'	Nick Thomas
13:25 (15 min)	Charity and Patient Perspective (The Brain Tumour Charity)  'Just use my data'	David Jenkinson
13:40 (15 min)	Researcher Perspective (Nuffield Department of Primary Care Health Sciences, University of Oxford)  'Opportunities and Challenges Associated with Diverse Health Data Linkages: Perspectives of those Working within a Trusted Research Environment'	Sneha Anand / Meredith Leston
14:55 (15 min)	Data Custodian Perspective (UK Longitudinal Linkage Collaboration)  'Integrating consented and non-consented data for longitudinal population studies'	Andy Boyd
14:10 (15 min)	Working towards recommendations	Meredith Leston and all participants

14:25 (5 min)	Close and AOB	Meredith Leston